Categories: Bourbon, Fruity & Spicy

The purest type of Maker's Mark bourbon. Maker's Mark Cask Strength is nonchill filtered and bottle at barrel proof; the proof varies according on the casks from 108 to 114.

Surprisingly smooth, this bourbon amplifies the tastes of wood, caramel, vanilla, and spice while preserving the Maker's Mark's distinctive front-of-the-palate qualities. Although the higher proof lends a strong bourbon presence to mixed drinks, we suggest sipping this incredibly smooth barrel-proof whiskey neat, with a splash, or on the rocks.
