Glengoyne Distillery is situated at Dumgoyne in the southern Highlands and has been in continuous operation producing single malts for over 175yrs. The distillery is one of only two distilleries remaining today that uses Golden Promise barley which is low in yield but high in quality.

The distillery's water supply comes from the Glengoyne Burn which flows from the nearby Dumgoyne hill into the distillery grounds before continuing on to Loch Lomond.

Tasting Note: Christmas cake, honey and rich fruit – with a long cinnamon finish. Perfect after dinner, or frankly, anytime. Mature exclusively in hand-selected sherry casks, for twenty one character-building years.
