Prounounced "Letch-ick". Actually pre-dating the Tobermory Name, it is a whisky with a powerful smoky character, often associated with Islay Malt Whiskies.

Colour: Bright lemony gold

Nose: Rich island character with tantalising hints of grass, malt, gingerbread, stewed fruit syrup and finely polished oak

Palate: Smooth, velvety with fruity tangs and exquisitely spiced gingerbread and aniseed for a medium sweetness to treasure

Finish: Ginger and spicy oak, matched with bitter chocolate and almond that gently fades with a tail of sweet salty seas

Awards: San Fransisco World Spirits 2019 - Double Gold World Whisky Awards 2019 - Category Winner
