This 18 Year Old Ledaig represents the rebirth of the style of malt whisky that would have originally been produced at the distillery.

Colour: Copper Gold

Nose: Rich, fruity sherried smokiness, lovely balance of phenols, seaweed and light creosote, dried chilli flakes, spicy black pepper with hints of sweet oakiness.

Palate: Powerful rich, sherried, herbal smoky flavours, orange peel, coffee, a touch of sea salt, tobacco and white pepper.

Finish: Long and quite pungent with more smoke, a hint of liquorice and sea spray.
