The Macallan Triple Cask Matured 18 Years Old Single Malt Whisky is part of Macallan's Triple Cask Matured range, which is a collection of single malt whiskies aged in a triple cask combination of European and American sherry seasoned oak casks, as well as American ex-bourbon oak casks. This trinity of spirits is skilfully blended to create a distinctive single malt with notes of citrus, velvety cocoa, and wood spice.

The Triple Cask Matured shows and exemplifies the vivacious union of three spirits, crafted from a blend of European sherry seasoned oak casks, American sherry seasoned oak casks, and American ex-bourbon oak casks. Eighteen years of maturity provide this expression the greatest depth of flavour, with richness of orange, velvety cocoa, and wood spice, as well as a natural light amber colour.
