Founded in 1912, Germana Cachaça today is one of the most renowned handcrafted Brazilian Cachaças, characterised for its straw covered bottle. The Germana recipe stems from a family tradition that began with the family's patriarch, Sergio Caetano. Since then, the secrets of its distillation have been passed down from generations to generations.

Awarded VIP status on many of London's finest back bars, Germana maintains a 100 year old tradition and quality for cachaça aged in oak and balm casks after natural maize fermentation and the noble distillation in copper stills.

The name Germana originates from a nun who lived alone on a mountain, Serra da Piedade, in the 18th century. She collected herbs, flowers and plants from the mountain side and extracted the medicinal proprieties of these by adding cachaça to heal the people of the region. In Portuguese Germana means unique, one of a kind, special and authentic and this is why Sergio Caetano chose this name for his Cachaça.

Tasting Note: This cachaça offers a well balanced mix of sugar cane, demerara, banana and fig notes. Creamy palate with a lingering spice after taste.
