Back in 1938, two friends with a passion for making rum decided to go their own way... Using oak barrels to pioneer a new ageing process, their rums took on such depth and smooth complexity even the government were convinced, and changed the very laws of rummaking to enhance its quality.

The benchmark for future generations was set, and Venezuelan rum was redefined forever.

A pioneer in the history of rum, Especial set a new benchmark in quality when it changed the laws of a country. After Pampero's founders began ageing their rum in oak casks in 1938, Especial became the first Venezuelan rum to be officially designated 'aged' (añejo).

Tasting Notes: Creamy, sweet, herbal, light, slightly drying, lingering. Woody, vanilla, honey, sweetly fruity, rummy.
