Born out of a pursuit to create the best white rum on the market, Veritas is a collaboration between Richard Seale of Foursquare Distillery and Italian Importer Luca Gargano of Velier. Their idea was to combine the best of Barbados column still rum with the funk, which is un-aged Jamaica pot still rum, from Hampden. This is rounded out by a little 2 year old aged pot still rum from Foursquare, that gives the rum its slight yellowish haze. Bottled at 47%, this has no additives or colourings. The extra ABV gives an incredibly pungent nose of ripe tropical fruit, zesty lime, vanilla and light coconut. On the palate there's a slight creaminess with soft toffee and more fruit. This can equally be sipped or put into your favourite rum cocktail. A Veritas Daiquiri is outstanding!
