The small Prosecco 8cento winery is nestled amongst the beautiful hills of Conegliano and Valdobbiadene. Founded in 1900, subsequent generations have expanded and constantly updated the estate which is now a leader in quality for the region, producing a range of styles which include one of the region's driest wines alongside a superb and very well-priced vintage release.

While firmly rooted in tradition, their winery is equipped with the latest technological innovation to ensure consistently high levels of quality.

Grape Varieties: Glera

Farming Practices: Vegetarian - Contains Sulphites

Tasting Notes: Ripe peach and Pear notes, hints of brioche; tremendous depth of flavour for a wine at this level. Lovely creamy mouthfeel and an elegant, refined finish.

Sugar Level: 16g/l

Closure: Natural Cork
