Loch Gorm is the name given to our annual release matured entirely in sherry casks. This, the 2019 edition of Loch Gorm is a vatting of twenty oloroso sherry butts from 2006, 2007, 2008, 2009 and 2011.

Nose: dried fig, orange peel and sea salt with hints of bacon, oaky spice, cinnamon and citrus sweetness.

Palate: stewed plums, morello cherries and dark chocolate with layers of salted caramel, herbaceous heather honey and wet ashy peat smoke.

Finish: cooked apples and pears with waves of all spice, dark chocolate and barbeque smoke.

“Recent editions of Loch Gorm have been a coming-of-age for the range, the addition of 12 and 13 year old casks has added fantastic balance and complexity” Anthony Wills, Kilchoman Founder
