Martini Riserva Speciale Bitter is created using 100% natural ingredients and the original 1872 recipe, created by MARTINI founder Luigi Rossi, as inspiration. MARTINI Master Herbalist, Ivano Tonutti, has carefully selected three rare botanicals (Saffron, Angostura and Columba), to deliver a unique richness and complexity to its taste profile through different dimensions of bitterness.

The Bitter is rested in the same Tino cask that is used for MARTINI Riserva Speciale Vermouth di Torino extracts and shares the vermouth's common botanical, Italian Artemisia, allowing its unique complex bitter taste to perfectly complement it.

MARTINI Riserva Speciale Bitter provides the ideal component in a raft of classic Italian aperitivo cocktails and is also delicious served alone, or simply mixed with tonic for a refreshing drink.
