This unique Laphroaig expression, aged for ten years and finished in sherry casks, combines the inimitable flavour of our traditional ten-year-old whisky with the sweetness and richness of Oloroso. Manuka honey, grilled bacon, and maple syrup mingle with Laphroaig's signature peat smoke and ocean air notes.

Before resting in carefully selected sherry casks, the whisky is made in the same time-honored manner as our ordinary 10 year old single malt. Each one has been hand-picked to complement and add complexity to our classic single malt. The casks are made of European oak and were previously filled with sweet Oloroso sherry to give this single malt Scotch a rich, full-bodied flavour character.
