The Woodstock winery is located in McLaren Vale, just south of Adelaide. Whilst it is very much an Australian producer, its name actually derives from England. In the quaint town of Woodstock in Oxfordshire stands a set of wooden leg stocks.

In Medieval times, these stocks were used to punish the local townsfolk who had over imbibed. As a cheeky nod to the town's history, Woodstock has named its flagship wine, the 'Stocks' Shiraz.

Grape Varieties: 100% Muscat Noir and Blanc a Petit Grains.

Farming Practices: Sustainable / minimal spray.

Tasting Notes: Raisin characters on the nose with orange zest aromas and a glimpse of Christmas pudding evident. Decadent, luscious lingering toffee and grape sweetness tempts the sweet tooth in you. This wine was deliberately bottled unfiltered to retain its viscosity and fullness.

Sugar Level: 230g/l

Closure: Screw Cap
