Château Guiraud is a historic Premier Cru Classé estate located in the Sauternes appellation of Bordeaux, with a winemaking tradition dating back to 1766. Renowned for its pioneering devotion to biodiversity and sustainability, it became the first Grand Cru Classé in Bordeaux to be certified organic. The estate spans 128 hectares, with vineyards planted predominantly to Sémillon and Sauvignon Blanc. Guiraud's wines are celebrated for their purity, elegance, and aromatic complexity.
