The Macallan Whisky A Night on Earth is a limited-edition single malt whisky that portrays the story of a Scottish New Year, expressing the delight of sharing memorable moments with loved ones. Telling the story of Scotland's world-famous Hogmanay celebrations, which take place every year on December 31st, and depicts the universal delight of ringing in the new year.

This seasonal release is a collaboration with Erica Dorn, a renowned Japanese-French illustrator whose work has appeared in Wes Anderson's films. Dorn's fun abstract images are inspired by historic fire rites prevalent in New Year festivities around the world, and the single malt is presented in unusual packaging to create a unique unpacking experience.
