In 1805, Madame Clicquot, a young widow of 27 years, took over the reins of the House founded in Reims in 1772 and became one of the first businesswomen in history. Audacious and visionary, she made her Champagne known to the world. Know How & Craftsmanship. For over 200 years, the House has stayed true to its motto: 'Only one quality, the finest' A consistency in style: complex & powerful with Pinot Noir predominance. Veuve Clicquot is a style of Champagne that radiates elegance vibrancy & edge with a unique yellow signature. With a refined balance of sweetness and fruity flavours, Veuve Clicquot demi-sec stands out for its delightful freshness and is perfectly suited to accompany fruit desserts.

Tasting Notes

Sight: A fine, even effervescence greets the eye, the wine being a beautiful yellow with deep golden highlights,

Nose: It is rich in the scents of ripe fruit (candied fruits, berry liquor), with hints of toasts and brioche.et toasties.

Palate: In the mouth, the wine displays both roundness and mellowness, combined with a delightful freshness due to its gentle acidity. The aromas of ripe fruit are very noticeable.
