Purus was created by passionate wine lovers Jean-Charles Dekandelaer and Constantin Denis with the intention of providing quality, organic produce in accordance with modern values of sustainability, transparency, community and health consciousness.

Made with 100% organic Chardonnay grapes, the Purus Blanc de Blancs is produced by first allowing for the alcoholic fermentation and setting of the juice and then de-alcoholised by vacuum distillation – giving a vegan-friendly, alcohol-free, low-calorie sparkling Chardonnay. The wine itself is crisp, fresh and vibrant with aromas of grapefruit, candied lemon and peach. A little sweetness has been left in to offset the tangy acidity, giving a balance to the wine which presents as dry when consumed.

The Purus Blanc de Blancs also won a Silver Medal at the 2022 Paris Wine Cup, whilst competing against alcoholic wines. Additionally, there is a partnership with TreeSisters who will plant 2 trees for every case sold.
