Latitud 34 is a family-produced easy drinking wine range from Mendoza. The family have been making wines for 3 generations in Mendoza.

The grapes are hand-harvested from their vineyards on the 34th latitude, at altitude in the mountain vineyards of Mendoza. They are then sorted by hand again to ensure only the fully ripe, clean grapes go into the wines. They are then fermented in a state-of-the-art winery, also in Mendoza, allowing the winemaker to control the temperatures and keep the freshness of the wines
