The Château de Laubade is located in the Bas Armagnac region and has been in the stewardship of the Lesgorgues family since 1974. This 40-year is a classic old armagnac and a masterclass in ageing the Baco grape.

The high proportion of Baco (over 50%) gives a velvety richness with plum, dried fruit and tobacco notes; the Ugni Blanc and Colombard making up the blend provide the elegance and freshness to back this up. Stunning with a cigar and without a cigar.
