Manuel Costa has been making delicious wines from the Vinho Verde region of northern Portugal for over 25 years from his state of the art winery. His focus is on capturing the traditional styles of the region in a fruit forward, accessible manner at a great price.

Their Flor de Verão, which translates as “summer flower”, is a hand-harvested blend of Alvarinho 20%, Avesso 40%, Loureiro 40% classic style of Vinho Verde with refreshing lime, tangerine and green herb with a saline edge. A delicate spritz in the traditional style gives the wine great freshness and drinkability and dissipates after time in in the glass. This incredible value white wine is a perfect match for oysters, sushi and sashimi or just on its own with a bowl of olives. Just 9.5% ABV makes this an ideal lower alcohol option for lunchtime
