A special release from Tarlant: 80% Chardonnay, 20% Pinot Noir. Made from five lieu-dits: Mocque Tonneau, Four à Chaux, Le Métier, Les Forgeottes and L'Enclume, which were selected blind by Benoît to create a snapshot of this ripe vintage. The wine spent 6 months in barrel before being bottled and aged sur lattes for a further 13 years, with disgorgement in February 2020.
