The annual Single Cask bottlings from Bonpland showcase the best that the rum category has to offer. A curated collection of the finest barrels from the best and most authentic rum distilleries in the world. This selection could reasonably be described as the “single malt“ of rum. In a world of blends, additional sugaring and solera processes, here you will find barrels from single distilleries – one source and each one unique. No dyes or colourings, no cold filtration, the exact nominal age, unadulterated, genuine and individually numbered. A half year finish in the very best barrels from our partner winemakers give the rums a final decisive note to the top distillates, which have already matured for decades.
