Lying between the villages of Pomerol and St-Emilion vineyards, Château du Haut Plateau has been family owned for three generations. The appellation of Montagne St-Emilion has developed a reputation for producing wines of exceptional value, offering similar characteristics to its famous neighbours, but at a substantially cheaper price.

The 15 hectares of vineyards are perched on the hillside next to Château Montaguillon, on a superb south-facing clay slope which optimises the available sunlight during the day while offering good drainage for the vines. The vines are machine harvested for optimum efficiency.

Grape Varieties: 70% Merlot, 20% Cabernet Franc, 10% Cabernet Sauvignon.

Farming Practices: Contain Sulfités.

Tasting Notes: This delicious red delivers plenty of succulent ripe, dark plum and berry fruit with a meaty edge, and soft, approachable tannins.

Food Match: Drink with barbequed lamb ribs.

Closure: Natural Cork

Vintage: 2016

Sugar Level: 0.7g/l
