Like a work of art, The Gardener is a quest for perfection. It expresses light and shadow, sea and sky, earth and air. Using his knowledge of distilling traditional London Dry Gin, Tom created The Gardener with a modern twist. To achieve this, he chose each of the ingredients with an uncompromising sense of quality. The recipe is a unique creation distilled with fresh citruses grown locally in the heart of the French Riviera. Fresh and soft, subtle and pure, It is a study in elegance and harmony—the very image of nature itself.
