Laurent Perrier was founded by André-Michel Pierlot in 1812 in the village of Tours-sur-Marne. However, it was the Nonancourt family who made this the famous Champagne House it is today. Bernard de Nonancourt, a veteran of the Second World War, took charge of the firm aged just 28. He is credited with creating Laurent-Perrier's house style, centred on freshness, finesse and elegance. Today, Lucie Pereyre de Nonancourt is the fourth generation of the family here.

Laurent Perrier Héritage Brut is made from selected grapes from 40 Crus of Champagne, of which 50% are Grand Cru. Made exclusively from 100% Reserve wines, from a blend of 55% Chardonnay and 44% Pinot Noir and aged for a minimum 4 years on the lees.
