Meili (MAY-lee) Vodka is the embodiment of the spirit of exploration, born from the union of fire, water, earth, and air. This exceptional vodka hails from the picturesque landscapes of Montana and is the brainchild of Jason Momoa and the innovative Blaine Halvorson, born from their friendship and mutual desire to capture the essence of adventure. Crafted with unbreakable attention to quality, Meili Vodka uses only the purest ingredients, resulting in a velvety, bright, and crisp profile that leaves a lasting impression.
