Anne Bonny Spiced Rum, created by Jean-Sébastien Robicquet, pays tribute to the legendary 18th-century Caribbean pirate, a fearless woman who defied convention. True to its namesake, this rum is a fusion of cultures, blending influences from Jamaica, the Dominican Republic, and Réunion for a bold, dynamic character.

Crafted from molasses and cane juice distillates, it is aged in barrels for an undisclosed period before undergoing a six-month infusion with an exotic mix of spices and fruits. Bottled at 40% ABV, it delivers a richly aromatic, complex profile—perfect neat, on ice, or in cocktails.
