The Champault family has produced wines for three generations. Frédéric Champault, the current owner of the winery, follows the tradition of his father, Roland Champault and his grandfather, Louis Champault, who were also winegrowers. Since he moved to the Barbotaine in 1994, he has worked in the vineyard together with his parents.

Grape Varieties: 100% Pinot Noir.

Tasting Notes: Delicate aromas of sour strawberries, cranberries and redcurrants beautifully balanced by crisp acidity and sophisticated dry red berry flavours. A serious rosé that is delicious by the glass, and pairs easily with food.

Awards: Gilbert & Gaillard - Gold.

Sugar Level: 0.7g/l

Closure: Natural Cork
