Nestled among the esteemed vineyards of Pauillac, Château Grand-Puy Ducasse shares its prestigious neighbourhood with Château Lafite and Château Pontet-Canet. This historic Fifth Growth estate, founded in 1675, is renowned for its commitment to sustainability and the production of wines that beautifully reflect their terroir.

Prélude à Grand-Puy Ducasse, the château's second wine, is crafted for earlier enjoyment while retaining the depth and character of a classic Pauillac. A blend of 57% Cabernet Sauvignon and 43% Merlot, it undergoes meticulous vinification, including manual harvesting, advanced sorting, and ageing for 18 to 24 months in French oak barrels.
