One of the most renowned names in Burgundy, Domaine Leflaive is famed for their commitment to biodynamic farming practices, being biodynamic certified since 1997. Located in Puligny-Montrachet, this family-owned estate has been producing wines of exceptional quality since 1717. The Bourgogne Blanc 2022 is a superb example of the estate's philosophy, offering a wine that embodies both the elegance and power of the region's most famous grape, Chardonnay.
