Founded in 2017 by Aimee Keushguerian, Zulal, meaning “pure” in Armenian, is dedicated to expressing the authentic character of Armenia’s indigenous grape varieties. The winery sources its Voskehat grapes from vineyards situated at elevations up to 1,500 meters in the Vayots Dzor region, an area renowned for its volcanic soils and extreme climate. This unique terroir, combined with minimal intervention winemaking, allows Zulal to produce wines that reflect the purity and legacy of Armenian viticulture.
