Domaine Vincent Pinard is a family-run estate situated in Bué, one of Sancerre's most esteemed villages. Now managed by Florent and Clément Pinard, the estate spans 17 hectares across steep, limestone-rich slopes. The Chêne Marchand vineyard, planted with vines over 50 years old, is renowned for its exceptional terroir. The estate practices organic and biodynamic viticulture, avoiding the use of herbicides, insecticides, and anti-rot treatments. Hand-harvested grapes undergo fermentation and maturation in a combination of oak barrels and stainless steel tanks, with minimal intervention to preserve the wine's natural expression.
