Pinard Brothers hail from a long lineage of vignerons in Bué, deeply rooted in sustainable and biodynamic farming methods. The Échos cuvée is crafted exclusively from organically tended vineyards in Amigny, where vines thrive on steep slopes with rocky, mineral-rich soils. Winemaking is kept deliberately hands-off, with fermentation occurring naturally using indigenous yeasts. The wine then matures in large, neutral oak vats, preserving its freshness and highlighting its inherent minerality without overt oak influence.
