Blackwater Distillery is situated on the banks of the Blackwater River. Its Irish name is 'An Abhainn Mhor' which means 'The Big River'. And big it certainly is. Sometimes referred to as the Munster Blackwater, it rises on the Cork, Kerry border and flows due east into Waterford, flowing past the distillery in Ballyduff. Established in 2014, Blackwater Distillery craft a range of spirits including our award-winning gins, vodka and traditional pot still Irish whisky
