Chiara and her husband Umberto Petitto founded the winery and focused on preserving the tradition and the quality of the region, aiming to establish their wines as the best expression of the "made in Campania".

DonnaChiara vineyards spread across 27 hectares, where Aglianico, Fiano and Greco di Tufo grapes are grown. "Our family tradition is the heart, the soul and the basis of which the natural foundations we build on. We give the passion to the land and grapes in order to produce wines of great strength and noble character."

Grape Varieties: 100% Fiano.

Tasting Note: An elegant wine with aromas reminiscent of acacia flowers and tropical fruit. Quite fruity on the palate with hints of almonds and walnuts with a refreshing finish.

Awards: James Suckling - 90 Points & Luca Maroni - 88 Points.

Sugar Level: 5.0g/l

Closure: Natural Cork
